As we welcome in September, and hopefully some warmer weather with Spring just around the corner, we're also welcoming Sophie Min into the studio as this month's Artist in Residence.

She's a Brisbane-based pianist and composer blending jazz, experimental and classical influences together to create her own signature sound. Growing up in South Korea, she began learning piano at the age of 3, and became a member of a whole lot of different ensembles, from choir to school rock bands. She moved to study at the Queensland Conservatorium in 2010, and has since become a force within the music scene.

Sophie collaborates with a diverse range of musicians including James Sherlock, Helen Svoboda and Timothy Green, and has released multiple records from different collaborative projects.

This week, get to know her and her favourite artists, from Herbie Hancock, Keith Jarrett, Maria Schneider, Nat Bartsch and many more.
